Dear Ms. Maron,

The determination is based on comments you made in a New York Post article published on February 24, 2024 in connection with an anonymous New York City Public School student's opinion piece that appeared in Stuyvesant High School's student newspaper, The Spectator, specifically: "The byline should read coward instead of anonymous. If you are going to repeat revolting Hamas propaganda and transcribe your ignorance and Jew hatred, put your name to it."

The conciliation can be scheduled following the spring break. My staff will be in contact to discuss scheduling once you have indicated whether you wish to engage in a conciliation meeting.

Dear Deputy Chancellor Lloyd,

I still do not know what you or Equity Compliance Officer Mickens are referring to. Neither Ms. Mickens initial interview request nor this adjudication indicate which words you want me to stop saying. Please clarify.

I will inform you about engaging in conciliation, after you inform me of what words you want me to stop saying.

Furthermore, the statute indicates that conciliation takes place within 10 calendar days of your decision. I respectfully request that you extend that time period as NYCPS schools students and families begin vacation tomorrow and this decision was sent to me at 10:48 last night by email. I am leaving the country tomorrow for the duration of the NYC Public School holiday. I also bring to your attention that this school vacation period coincides with a religious holiday.

Best,
Maud
